

EIM INTERNATIONAL IS SELECTED BY COZEN O'CONNOR

EIM International to Head a Company-Wide Document Management Update

NEW YORK, NY-- August 5 , 2005--EIM International, a leading provider of document management solutions and premier Hummingbird DM integrator, has announced that longtime client Cozen O'Connor, a full-service law firm with over 20 offices in the U.S. and U.K., has selected EIM International to work on a significant document management (DM) system upgrade effort.

Cozen O'Connor is upgrading to Hummingbird DM5 to enable advanced document management functionality and has chosen EIM and Hummingbird to assist with the project. The result will yield a more responsive DM with expanded options managing email and working via a matter-centric orientation.

"We are extremely excited to work with a leading law firm like Cozen O'Connor," said Peter Lieber, Vice President of EIM International. "Cozen understands the value of their information assets. We will use our unique combination of business knowledge and DM expertise to create a matter-centric system that will improve Cozen's use of document-based information and work product."

"We selected EIM International because of its sound knowledge of the Hummingbird product and vast experience with firms seeking a matter-centric approach to document management," said Amy Freese, Director of Information Services for Cozen O'Connor. "Having worked with EIM over the past five years, we are confident they will deliver the best solution to enhance our technology and satisfy our business goals."

EIM International takes great pride in helping legal firms and corporations to take advantage of the benefits that derive from their single greatest commodity, the corporate knowledge base
